

Nov. the 19th 1731.

PROPOSALS

For PRINTING by SUBSCRIPTION,

A COMPLEAT HISTORY of the remote, and hitherto undescrib'd Part of GUINEA, under the Dominion of the Most Puissant Emperor Trudo, Audato, Povesau, &c. who lately conquer'd the Great Kingdoms of Ardab and Whidah; and is now at War with the Great King of the Iyo's, who always fight on Horseback.

IN FOUR PARTS.

By Capt. BULFINCH LAMBE,

late Factor for the Royal African Company of England, who was several Years a Captive there, without seeing any white Person (He having been convey'd further up the Country, than any European ever was before) containing his own Adventures, interspers'd with those of ADOMO TOMO, who is sent with Him, by that Emperor, to see the King, and Kingdom of Great Britain.

CONDITIONS.

I. THIS Work will be printed upon the same Paper, and Letter, with these Proposals.

II. THE Whole will make Two Volumes, in Octavo; each, to contain about Twenty-Five Sheets, illustrated with Cuts; and a Map of the Country.

III. THE Price to Subscribers, is Half a Guinea; Five Shillings to be paid at the Time of Subscribing, and the Remainder, on the Delivery of the Books in Sheets; which will be finish'd by Michaelmas next. A small Number will be printed upon Royal Paper. Price One Guinea, each Sett.

IV. SUBSCRIBERS for Six, shall have a Seventh Gratis; and an Alphabetical List of their Names will be placed before the First Volume.

N. B. No more will be printed than are subscrib'd for.

SUBSCRIPTIONS are taken in by Lawton Gilliver, over-against St. Dunstan's Church in Fleetstreet. J. Brotherton in Cornehill. S. Austin in St. Paul's Church-Yard. J. King in Westminster-Hall. A. Bettefworth in Pater-Noster-Row. Mr. Crosley Bookieller in Bristol; and by the Author, at Janeway's Coffee-House near the Royal-Exchange.

London

173

Receiv'd of being the first Payment for a compleat Sett of Capt. Lambe's Voyage to Guinea, in Two Volumes Octavo, which, when finish'd, I promise to deliver, to the Bearer hereof, on Payment of the Remainder, according to the Proposals.

C O N T E N T S.

PART I. AN Account of the Author's Voyage to Guinea. His Transactions at Jacquin: His Adventures and Imprisonment at Ardab, by the King of that Country, upon the Company's Account. The barbarous Usage he receiv'd there, for twice attempting to make his Escape to the Company's Factory. The Rise of the Civil Wars between that King and his Brother; wherein the King was slain, and most of his Nobles either cut off, or taken Captives; the Capital City of Ardab sack'd and burnt, and the whole Kingdom conquer'd by the then King of Daubomay. The Cruelty of the Soldiers to their Prisoners. The Author taken there, by that Monarch's Forces. What remarkable Things happened during his Stay in the Camp, and afterwards, in his Journey to Abomey, the Capital of Daubomay.

PART II. THE Author's Arrival at the Emperor's Palace, the Walls whereof are set round with Sculls. His Reception there. How He became the Favourite of that Monarch, and made up a Difference between Him, and his eldest Son. The high Respect he acquir'd among the Nobility of that Country, and the Petty Kings who came to make their Submission. The Author's Manner of living there, and the Presents he received from the Emperor and his Nobility, during his Residence at that Court.

PART III. A Continuation of that Emperor's Wars and Conquests, with a further Account of the Author's Captivity. The Kingdoms subdu'd during that Time. The Emperor's manner of Government, and making War. The King of Jacquin's Request to the Author, to make a Peace between Him and the Emperor, which He perform'd; as also an Account of his Negotiations, between that Emperor and the King of Whidah.

PART IV. Concludes the Author's Memoirs. The Emperor's Settlement of his prodigious Dominions. The present Method of carrying on Trade with the Europeans fully describ'd. His Dismission by the Emperor, and the Gifts bestow'd upon him at parting, with sundry remarkable Observations during his Stay in the Country, as also in his Journey from that Place to the Sea Coast

To which will be added an APPENDIX.

CONTAINING the present Extent of this Emperor's Dominions. The Splendour of his Court. The subordinate Princes, Judges, and other great Officers of State; with the several Ranks and Titles of the Nobility. Their several Employments. The History and Antiquities of the Country. The Religion, Superstition, Priests, Magicians, Temples, publick and private Buildings, Habits, Marriages, Funeral-Ceremonies, &c. The Unhealthfulness of the Climate. Its several Commodities. Its Markets for Slaves, and other Commerce, with their Language (a Specimen whereof is here given.) The Nature of the Soil. An Account of Birds, Beasts and Fish, with sundry Particulars, hitherto, wholly undescrib'd.

's
of
d
of
of a h oag
rs.
o-
on lis
eehe ce

mrt.
eat
nd
y-
he
fts,
ld-
Sc.
ve-
o-
ci-
the ith
d.